

Canon Caroline Brumbaugh

As a member of the Cathedral Chapter, Caroline Brumbaugh proposed that the Chapter institute a formal organization to provide ongoing financial support for the cathedral—an idea that has come to fruition with the recently established “Friends of Trinity Cathedral.”

Caroline is a member of St. Thomas, Coral Gables, where she has long been a leader in adult Christian Education programs.

She is a graduate of Hollins College, in Roanoke, Va., and has a master's degree in math from the University of Florida. She is formally trained in the ministry of spiritual direction and serves as a spiritual director. She has led parish retreats not only at St. Thomas, but also in parishes in North Carolina.

She served as chair of the diocesan Commission on Ministry from 2001-2002.
